Meaning of beneficial owner

3 (1) In the case of a body corporate, “beneficial owner” means any individual who—

- (a) as respects any body other than a company whose securities are listed on an appointed stock exchange, ultimately owns or controls (whether through direct or indirect ownership or control, including through bearer share holdings) more than 25% of the shares or voting rights in the body; or
- (b) as respects any body corporate, otherwise exercises control over the management of the body.

(2) In the case of a partnership, “beneficial owner” means any individual who—

- (a) ultimately is entitled to or controls (whether the entitlement or control is direct or indirect) more than a 25% share of the capital or profits of the partnership or more than 25% of the voting rights in the partnership; or

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (b) otherwise exercises control over the management of the partnership.
- (3) In the case of a trust, “beneficial owner” means—
 - (a) any individual who is entitled to a specified interest in at least 25% of the capital of the trust property;
 - (b) as respects any trust other than one which is set up or operates entirely for the benefit of individuals falling within sub-paragraph (a), the class of persons in whose main interest the trust is set up or operates;
 - (c) any individual who has control over the trust.
- (4) In paragraph (3)—
 - “specified interest” means a vested interest which is—
 - (a) in possession or in remainder or reversion; and
 - (b) defeasible or indefeasible;
 - “control” means a power (whether exercisable alone, jointly with another person or with the consent of another person) under the trust instrument or by law to—
 - (a) dispose of, advance, lend, invest, pay or apply trust property;
 - (b) vary the trust;
 - (c) add or remove a person as a beneficiary or to or from a class of beneficiaries;
 - (d) appoint or remove trustees;
 - (e) direct, withhold consent to or veto the exercise of a power such as is mentioned in subparagraph (a), (b), (c) or (d).
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)—
 - (a) where an individual is the beneficial owner of a body corporate which is entitled to a specified interest in the capital of the trust property or which has control over the trust, the individual is to be regarded as entitled to the interest or having control over the trust; and
 - (b) an individual does not have control solely as a result of—
 - (i) his consent being required in accordance with section 24(1) (c) of the Trustee Act 1975 (power of advancement); or

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (ii) the power exercisable collectively at common law to vary or extinguish a trust where the beneficiaries under the trust are of full age and capacity and (taken together) absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust.

(6) In the case of a legal entity or legal arrangement which does not fall within paragraph (1), (2) or (3), “beneficial owner” means—

- (a) where the individuals who benefit from the entity or arrangement have been determined, any individual who benefits from at least 25% of the property of the entity or arrangement;
- (b) where the individuals who benefit from the entity or arrangement have yet to be determined, the class of persons in whose main interest the entity or arrangement is set up or operates;
- (c) any individual who exercises control over at least 25% of the property of the entity or arrangement.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (6), where an individual is the beneficial owner of a body corporate which benefits from or exercises control over the property of the entity or arrangement, the individual is to be regarded as benefiting from or exercising control over the property of the entity or arrangement.

(8) In the case of an estate of a deceased person in the course of administration, “beneficial owner” means the executor, original or by representation, or administrator for the time being of a deceased person.

(9) In any other case, “beneficial owner” means the individual who ultimately owns or controls the customer or on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted.

(10) In this regulation—

“arrangement”, “entity” and “trust” means an arrangement, entity or trust which administers and distributes funds.

Application of Regulations

4 These Regulations apply to the following persons acting in the course of business carried on by them in or from Bermuda —

- (a) financial institutions;
- (b) independent professionals.

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

PART 2
CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE

Meaning of customer due diligence measures

5 "customer due diligence measures" means —

- (a) identifying the customer and verifying the customer's identity on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from a reliable and independent source;
- (b) identifying, where there is a beneficial owner who is not the customer, the beneficial owner and taking adequate measures, on a risk-sensitive basis, to verify his identity so that the relevant person is satisfied that he knows who the beneficial owner is, including, in the case of a legal person, trust or similar legal arrangement, measures to understand the ownership and control structure of the person, trust or arrangement; and
- (c) obtaining information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship.

Application of customer due diligence measures

6 (1) Subject to regulations 7, 10, 11, 13(4) and 14, a relevant person must apply customer due diligence measures when he —

- (a) establishes a business relationship;
- (b) carries out an occasional transaction;
- (c) suspects money laundering or terrorist financing; or
- (d) doubts the veracity or adequacy of documents, data or information previously obtained for the purpose of identification or verification.

(2) A relevant person must apply customer due diligence measures at appropriate times to existing customers on a risk-sensitive basis.

(3) A relevant person must—

- (a) determine the extent of customer due diligence measures on a risk-sensitive basis depending on the type of customer, business relationship, product or transaction; and
- (b) be able to demonstrate to its supervisory authority that the extent of customer due diligence measures is appropriate in view of the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing.

- (4) Where—
- (a) a relevant person is required to apply customer due diligence measures in the case of a trust, legal entity (other than a body corporate) or a legal arrangement (other than a trust); and
 - (b) the class of persons in whose main interest the trust, entity or arrangement is set up or operates is identified as a beneficial owner, the relevant person is not required to identify all the members of the class.

Ongoing monitoring

7 (1) A relevant person must conduct ongoing monitoring of a business relationship.

(2) “Ongoing monitoring” of a business relationship means—

- (a) scrutiny of transactions undertaken throughout the course of the relationship (including, where necessary, the source of funds) to ensure that the transactions are consistent with the relevant person’s knowledge of the customer, his business and risk profile; and
- (b) so far as practicable keeping the documents, data or information obtained for the purpose of applying customer due diligence measures up-to-date.

(3) Regulation 6(3) applies to the duty to conduct ongoing monitoring under paragraph (1) as it applies to customer due diligence measures.

Timing of verification

8 (1) This regulation applies in respect of the duty under regulations 6(1)(a) and (b) to apply the customer due diligence measures referred to in regulations 5(a) and (b).

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5), a relevant person must verify the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) before the establishment of a business relationship or the carrying out of an occasional transaction.

(3) Such verification may be completed during the establishment of a business relationship if—

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (a) this is necessary not to interrupt the normal conduct of business; and
 - (b) there is little risk of money laundering or terrorist financing occurring, provided that the verification is completed as soon as practicable after contact is first established.
- (4) The verification of the identity of the beneficiary under a life insurance policy may take place after the business relationship has been established provided that it takes place at or before the time of payout or at or before the time the beneficiary exercises a right vested under the policy.
- (5) The verification of the identity of a bank account holder may take place after the bank account has been opened provided that there are adequate safeguards in place to ensure that —
- (a) the account is not closed; and
 - (b) transactions are not carried out by or on behalf of the account holder (including any payment from the account to the account holder), before verification has been completed.

Requirement to cease transactions, etc.

- 9 (1) Where in relation to any customer, a relevant person is unable to apply customer due diligence measures in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations he —
- (a) shall not carry out a transaction with or for the customer through a bank account;
 - (b) shall not establish a business relationship or carry out an occasional transaction with the customer;
 - (c) shall terminate any existing business relationship with the customer; and
 - (d) shall consider whether he is required to make a disclosure by section 46(2) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 1997 or paragraph 1 of Part I of Schedule I of the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Act 2004.
- (2) Paragraph (1) does not apply where a professional legal adviser is in the course of ascertaining the legal position for his client or performing his task of defending or representing that client in, or concerning, legal proceedings, including advice on instituting or avoiding proceedings.

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

Simplified due diligence

10 (1) A relevant person is not required to apply the customer due diligence measures referred to in regulation 5(a), (b) or (c) in the circumstances mentioned in regulation 6(1)(a), (b) or (d) where he has reasonable grounds for believing that the customer, product or transaction related to such product, falls within any of the following paragraphs.

(2) The customer is—

(a) a financial institution which is subject to the requirements of these Regulations; or

(b) a financial institution (or equivalent institution) which—

(i) is situated in a country or territory other than Bermuda which imposes requirements equivalent to those laid down in these Regulations; and

(ii) is supervised for compliance with those requirements.

(3) The customer is a company whose securities are listed on an appointed stock exchange.

(4) The customer is an independent professional (or similar professional) and the product is an account into which monies are pooled, provided that —

(a) where the pooled account is held in a country or territory other than Bermuda —

(i) that country or territory imposes requirements to combat money laundering and terrorist financing which are equivalent to those laid down in these Regulations; and

(ii) the independent professional is supervised in that country or territory for compliance with those requirements; and

(b) information on the identity of the persons on whose behalf monies are held in the pooled account is available, on request, to the institution which acts as a custodian for the account.

(5) The customer is a public authority in Bermuda.

(6) The product is —

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (a) a life insurance contract where the annual premium is no more than $1,000 or where a single premium of no more than $2,500 is paid for a single policy;
- (b) an insurance contract for the purpose of a pension scheme where the contract contains no surrender clause and cannot be used as collateral; or
- (c) a pension, superannuation or similar scheme which provides retirement benefits to employees, where contributions are made by an employer or by way of deduction from an employee's wages and the scheme rules do not permit the assignment of a member's interest under the scheme.

(7) The product and any transaction related to such product fulfils all the conditions set out in paragraph 1 of the Schedule.

Enhanced customer due diligence

11 (1) A relevant person must apply on a risk-sensitive basis enhanced customer due diligence measures—

- (a) in accordance with paragraphs (2) to (4);
- (b) in any other situation which by its nature can present a higher risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.

(2) Where the customer has not been physically present for identification purposes, a relevant person must take specific and adequate measures to compensate for the higher risk, for example by applying one or more of the following measures—

- (a) ensuring that the customer's identity is established by additional documents, data or information;
- (b) supplementary measures to verify or certify the documents supplied, or requiring confirmatory certification by a financial institution (or equivalent institution) which is subject to equivalent Regulations;
- (c) ensuring that the first payment is carried out through an account opened in the customer's name with a banking institution.

(3) A banking institution (the “correspondent”) which has or proposes to have a correspondent banking relationship with a respondent institution (the “respondent”) from a country or territory other than Bermuda must —

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (a) gather sufficient information about the respondent to understand fully the nature of its business;
 - (b) determine from publicly-available information the reputation of the respondent and the quality of its supervision;
 - (c) assess the respondent's controls relating to anti-money laundering control and anti-terrorism financing controls;
 - (d) obtain approval from senior management before establishing a new correspondent banking relationship;
 - (e) document the respective responsibilities of the respondent and correspondent;
 - (f) be satisfied that, in respect of those of the respondent's customers who have direct access to accounts of the correspondent, the respondent —
 - (i) has verified the identity of, and performs ongoing due diligence on, such customers; and
 - (ii) is able upon request to provide relevant customer due diligence data to the correspondent.
- (4) A relevant person who proposes to have a business relationship or carry out an occasional transaction with a politically exposed person must —
- (a) have approval from senior management for establishing a business relationship with that person;
 - (b) take adequate measures to establish the source of wealth and source of funds which are involved in the business relationship or occasional transaction; and
 - (c) where the business relationship is entered into, conduct enhanced ongoing monitoring of the business relationship.
- (5) In paragraph (4), "a politically exposed person" means a person to whom paragraph (6) applies.
- (6) This paragraph applies to a person who is in any country or territory outside Bermuda—
- (a) an individual who is or has, at any time in the preceding year, been entrusted with prominent public functions;

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (b) a person who falls in any of the categories listed in paragraph 2(1)(a) of the Schedule;
- (c) an immediate family member of a person referred to in sub-paragraph (a) including a person who falls in any of the categories listed in paragraph 2(1)(d) of the Schedule; or
- (d) a known close associate of a person referred to in sub-paragraph (a) including a person who falls in either of the categories listed in paragraph 2(1)(e) of the Schedule.

(7) For the purpose of deciding whether a person is a known close associate of a person referred to in paragraph (6) (a), a relevant person need only have regard to information which is in his possession or is publicly known.

Branches and subsidiaries

12 (1) A financial institution must require its branches and subsidiary undertakings which are located in a country or territory other than Bermuda to apply, to the extent permitted by the law of that country or territory, measures at least equivalent to those set out in these Regulations with regard to customer due diligence measures, ongoing monitoring and record-keeping.

(2) Where the law of such a country or territory does not permit the application of such equivalent measures by the branch or subsidiary undertaking located in that country or territory, the financial institution shall—

- (a) inform the Bermuda Monetary Authority accordingly; and
- (b) take additional measures to handle effectively the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing.

(3) In this regulation “subsidiary undertaking” except in relation to an incorporated friendly society, has the meaning given by section 86 of the Companies Act (‘parent and subsidiary undertakings’) and, in relation to a body corporate in or formed under the law of a country or territory other than Bermuda, includes an undertaking which is a subsidiary undertaking within the meaning of any rule of law in force in that country or territory.

Shell banks, anonymous accounts etc.

13 (1) A banking institution shall not enter into, or continue, a correspondent banking relationship with a shell bank.

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

(2) A banking institution must take appropriate measures to ensure that it does not enter into, or continue, a corresponding banking relationship with a bank which is known to permit its accounts to be used by a shell bank.

(3) A financial institution must not set up an anonymous account or an anonymous pass book for any new or existing customer.

(4) As soon as possible after the commencement of these Regulations all financial institutions must apply customer due diligence measures to, and conduct ongoing monitoring of, all anonymous accounts and passbooks in existence on that date and in any event before such accounts or passbooks are used in any way.

(5) A "shell bank" means a banking institution, or an institution engaged in equivalent activities, incorporated in a jurisdiction in which it has no physical presence involving meaningful decision making and management, and which is unaffiliated with a regulated financial group.

Reliance on third parties

14 (1) A relevant person may rely on a person who falls within paragraph (2) [or who the relevant person has reasonable grounds to believe falls within paragraph (2)] to apply any customer due diligence measures provided that —

- (a) the other person consents to being relied on; and
- (b) notwithstanding the relevant person's reliance on the other person, the relevant person remains liable for any failure to apply such measures.

- (2) The persons are —
 - (a) a financial institution;
 - (b) a relevant person who is—
 - (i) an independent professional; and
 - (ii) is supervised for the purposes of these Regulations by the Bermuda Bar Association or, as the case may be, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bermuda.
 - (c) a person who carries on business in a country or territory other than Bermuda who is —

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (i) an institution that carries on business corresponding to the business of financial institutions or independent professional;
- (ii) in the case of an independent professional, subject to mandatory professional registration recognised by law;
- (iii) subject to requirements equivalent to those laid down in these Regulations; and
- (iv) supervised for compliance with requirements equivalent to supervision by his supervisory authority.

(3) Nothing in this regulation prevents a relevant person applying customer due diligence measures by means of an outsourcing service provider or agent provided that the relevant person remains liable for any failure to apply such measures.

PART 3
RECORD-KEEPING, SYSTEMS, TRAINING ETC.

Record-keeping

15 (1) A relevant person must keep the records specified in paragraph (2) for at least the period specified in paragraph (3).

(2) The records are—

- (a) a copy of, or the references to, the evidence of the customer's identity obtained pursuant to regulation 6, 11, 13(4) or 14;
- (b) the supporting evidence and records (consisting of the original documents or copies admissible in court proceedings) in respect of the business relationships and occasional transactions which are the subject of customer due diligence.

(3) The period is five years beginning on the date on which the business relationship ends, or, in the case of an occasional transaction, five years beginning on the date on which the transaction is completed.

(4) A relevant person who is relied on by another person must keep the records specified in paragraph (2)(a) for five years beginning on the date on which he is relied on for the purposes of regulation 6, 11 or 13(4) in relation to any business relationship or occasional transaction.

(5) But in any case where a police officer has notified a relevant person in writing that particular records are or may be relevant to an investigation which is being carried out, the relevant person must keep the records pending the outcome of the investigation.

(6) A person referred to in regulation 14(2) (a) or (b) who is relied on by a relevant person must, if requested by the person relying on him within the period referred to in paragraph (4)—

(a) as soon as reasonably practicable make available to the person who is relying on him any information about the customer (and any beneficial owner) which he obtained when applying customer due diligence measures; and

(b) as soon as reasonably practicable forward to the person who is relying on him copies of any identification and verification data and other relevant documents on the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) which he obtained when applying those measures.

(7) A relevant person who relies on a person referred to in regulation 14(2)(c) (a “third party”) to apply customer due diligence measures must take steps to ensure that the third party will, if requested by the relevant person within the period referred to in paragraph (4)—

(a) as soon as reasonably practicable make available to him any information about the customer (and any beneficial owner) which the third party obtained when applying customer due diligence measures; and

(b) as soon as reasonably practicable forward to him copies of any identification and verification data and other relevant documents on the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) which the third party obtained when applying those measures.

(8) Subparagraphs (6) and (7) do not apply where a relevant person applies customer due diligence measures by means of an outsourcing service provider or agent.

(9) For the purposes of this regulation, a person relies on another person where he does so in accordance with regulation 14(1).

Systems

16 (1) A relevant person must establish and maintain appropriate and risk-sensitive policies and procedures relating to —

(a) customer due diligence measures and ongoing monitoring;

(b) reporting;

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

- (c) record-keeping;
 - (d) internal control;
 - (e) risk assessment and management;
 - (f) the monitoring and management of compliance with and the internal communication of such policies and procedures in order to prevent activities related to money laundering and terrorist financing.
- (2) The policies and procedures referred to in paragraph (1) include policies and procedures—
- (a) which provide for the identification and scrutiny of—
 - (i) complex or unusually large transactions;
 - (ii) unusual patterns of transactions which have no apparent economic or visible lawful purpose; and
 - (iii) any other activity which the relevant person regards as particularly likely by its nature to be related to money laundering or terrorist financing;
 - (b) which specify the taking of additional measures, where appropriate, to prevent the use for money laundering or terrorist financing of products and transactions which might favour anonymity;
 - (c) to determine whether a customer is a politically exposed person;
 - (d) under which —
 - (i) anyone in the organisation to whom information or other matter comes in the course of the business as a result of which he knows or suspects that a person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing is required to comply with sections 46(5) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 1997 or, as the case may be, section 9 or paragraph 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Act 2004; and
 - (ii) where a disclosure is made to the nominated officer, he must consider it in the light of any relevant information which is available to the relevant person and determine whether it gives rise to knowledge or suspicion that a person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing.

(3) A financial institution must communicate where relevant the policies and procedures which it establishes and maintains in accordance with this regulation to its branches and subsidiaries which are located outside Bermuda.

(4) A financial institution must have systems in place enabling it to respond as soon as reasonably practicable to enquiries from the Financial Intelligence Agency or a police officer —

- (a) whether it maintains, or has maintained during the previous five years, a business relationship with any person; and
- (b) the nature of that relationship.

Internal reporting procedures

17 (1) A relevant person must maintain internal reporting procedures which require that —

- (a) the reporting officer to whom a report is to be made of any information or other matter which comes to the attention of an employee and which in the opinion of that employee gives rise to a knowledge or suspicion that another person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing;
- (b) any such report be considered by the reporting officer in the light of all other relevant information for the purpose of determining whether or not the information or other matter contained in the report does give rise to such a knowledge or suspicion;
- (c) the reporting officer be given access to any other information which may be of assistance to him in considering the report; and
- (d) the reporting officer disclose to the Financial Intelligence Agency the information or other matter contained in a report, where the reporting officer knows or suspects that a person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing.

PROCEEDS OF CRIME (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING) REGULATIONS 2008

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply where the relevant person is an individual who neither employs nor acts in association with any other person.

Training etc.

18 (1) A relevant person must take appropriate measures so that all relevant employees of his are —

- (a) made aware of the law relating to money laundering and terrorist financing; and
- (b) regularly given training in how to recognise and deal with transactions which may be related to money laundering or terrorist financing.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, an employee is a relevant employee if, at any time in the course of his duties, he has, or may have access to any information which may be relevant in determining whether any person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing.

Offences

19 (1) A person who fails to comply with any requirement in regulations 6(1), (2) and (3), 7(1) and (3), 8(2), 9(1)(a), (b) and (c), 11(1), 12(1) and (2), 13(1), (2), (4) and (5), 15(1), (4), (5), (6) and (7), 16(1), (3) and (4), and 18(1) is guilty of an offence and liable —
