SCHEDULE
CHAPTER 227

BROADCASTING AND TELEVISION

[Ist March, 1984]

1. This Act may be cited as the Broadcasting and Television Act.

2. For the purpose of this Act-

“Authority” means the Belize Broadcasting Authority established under section 3 (1);

“Board” means the Board of Directors established under section 3(3);

“broadcasting” means any form of unidirectional telecommunications, whether encrypted or not, for reception by the general public or a part of it, and includes:-

(a) any program capable of being received, or received and displayed, as visual images, whether moving or still;

(b) any sound program for reception;

(c) any program being a combination of both visual image (whether moving or still) and sound for reception, or reception and display;

and “broadcast” shall be construed accordingly;

“licence” means a licence issued to a person permitting that person to operate a radio station or television station;
“licensee” means the holder of a licence;

“‘Minister’ means Minister responsible for broadcasting;

“radio station” means-

(a) a station for transmission, by means of radio waves, of matter designed for aural reception by the general public; or

(b) a station for transmission, by means of a wired network connecting a transmitting instrument to a number of receiving instruments, of matter designed for aural reception by the general public, and includes the studio, transmitting station and technical equipment provided for use in connection with the transmission;

“radio waves” means any electromagnetic waves of frequencies less than 3000 GHz propagated in space without artificial guide;

“Secretary” means the person for the time being performing the functions of secretary to the Board;

“telecommunications” means the transmission, emission, or reception of signs, signals, writings, images and sounds or intelligence of any nature by wire, radio, optical or any other electromagnetic system;

“television station” means:-

(a) a station for the transmission by means of radio waves of fixed or moving images and associated sound designed for reception by the general public or a part of it;

(for cable) (b) a station for the transmission by means of a wired or guided network connecting a transmitting instrument to a number of television receivers for reception by the general public or a part of it; and includes the studio, transmitting station and technical equipment used for the purposes of such transmission.

3. (1) For the purposes of this Act there is established an Authority, known as the Belize Broadcasting Authority, which shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal which shall be judicially noticed and which may sue and be sued in its corporate name and may make contracts and hold and dispose of land of whatever tenure and other property for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act.

(2) All deeds, documents or other instruments requiring the seal of the Authority shall be sealed with the common seal of the Authority in the presence of the Chairman and one other member of the Authority who shall sign every such deed, document or other instrument to which the seal is affixed.

(3) There is established a Board of Directors for the purposes of directing the affairs of the Authority, and the constitution of the Board shall be as set out in the Schedule hereto.

(4) The Minister may, from time to time by Order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule.

4. (1) The functions of the Authority are-

(a) to advise the Minister on any matter within its knowledge or in respect of which the Minister seeks advice;
(b) to advise the Minister regarding the terms and conditions subject to which licences to which this Act relates are to be issued;

(c) to obtain from any licensee such information as may be prescribed relating to the operations and programmes run by that licensee;

(d) to ensure that the services provided by radio stations and television stations are in accordance with plans prepared by the Authority and approved by the Minister;

(e) to ensure that-

(i) the technical equipment in use at radio stations and television stations is maintained by the operators of those stations in accordance with such standards and practices as the Board considers appropriate;

(ii) the operations at radio stations and television stations are carried out in compliance with such standards and practices as the Board considers appropriate;

(iii) the terms and conditions of licences are complied with;

(f) to institute legal proceedings in any court of law on any matter relating to the proper management and regulation of radio and television in Belize and for this purpose it shall be deemed a Public Authority within the meaning of section 2 of the Public Authority Act.
Authorities Protection Act;

(g) to perform such other functions in relation to radio and television stations as may be prescribed.

(2) The Authority may determine-

(a) the hours during which programmes may be broadcast or televised;

(b) the conditions subject to which advertisements may be broadcast or televised by licensees; and

(c) the types of programmes which may be broadcast or televised and the use of certain programmes of an educational, cultural, sporting or scientific nature or such programmes as the Authority may reasonably require in the public interest at such time or times as may be prescribed.

(3) The Authority may, in exercising its functions under this section, consult with the operators of radio and television stations.

5. (1) No person shall establish or operate any radio or television station or use any apparatus or installation for the purposes of broadcasting except under and in accordance with a licence issued to him by the Minister and upon payment of such fee as the Minister prescribes.

(2) An application for a licence must be made in writing to the Chairman of the Board in such form and containing such particulars as the Minister approves.

(3) The Board shall within four weeks from the date of its receiving an application submit that application to the Minister with a recommendation for the grant or refusal of the application, stating in either case the reasons for its recommendation.

(4) The Minister may, upon receiving the recommendation of the Board, issue a licence to the applicant on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit or he may refuse the application.

(5) Every licence issued under this Act is effective for such period from the date of issue as the Minister may determine in each case and is renewable for a like period unless the Minister otherwise directs.

5:01 (1) There shall be and is hereby established an Association, to be known as the Belize Cable Television Operators Association (hereinafter referred to as “the Association”), which shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal which shall be judicially noticed and which may sue and be sued in its corporate name and may enter into agreements and contracts for the benefit of its members.

(2) Every person licensed by the Minister to operate a television station under section 5 which offers cable programme services shall be a member of the Association.

(3) The functions of the Association are:-

(a) to negotiate with owners of copyright in cinematograph films, broadcasts and cable programmes and to enter into licensing, assignment or other arrangements with such owners for and on behalf of its members;

(b) to make available to its members for broadcasting, on equal terms and conditions, the cinematograph films, broadcasts and cable programmes acquired by it under paragraph (a);
(c) to ensure any agreements, and other licensing arrangements entered into by it under paragraph (a), and to report to the Authority, every four months after the commencement of this section, any difficulties existing in negotiating favourable conditions for its members in respect of the copyright material referred to in paragraph (a);

(d) to recommend policies and programmes that are beneficial to the business interests of members of the Association and the Belizean public.

(4) It shall be a condition of membership of the Association that -

(a) each member pays the licence or other fees associated with or relating to an agreement entered into by the Association pursuant to subsection (3) (a), and in the event of a failure to comply with this paragraph the member shall, upon receipt of a notice from the Association, forthwith -

(i) remove the cinematograph films broadcasts or cable programmes for which no fees have been paid, with effect from a date specified in the notice; or

(ii) pay the requisite fees;

(b) in the event of a failure by a member of the Association to comply with paragraph (a) (i) or (ii) above, the Association shall, when submitting the report referred to in subsection (3) (c), recommend to the Authority the suspension of the licence granted to such member under this Act.
(5) The Authority may, after hearing the member referred to in subsection (4) (a) for whom recommendation for suspension has been made by the Association pursuant to subsection (4) (b), suspend the licence of the member of the Association on such terms and conditions as the Authority shall determine.

(6) The words “copyright”, “cinematograph film”, “cable programme”, “cable programme service” and “broadcast” have the meanings respectively assigned to each of them in section 3 (1) of the Copyright Act.

(7) It is unlawful for a person who holds a television licence under section 5 and who offers a cable programme service, or for any other person, other than the Association, to be a licensee or assignee of a cinematograph film, cable programme, or broadcast, and in that capacity to offer it to the Association or, to any other person for distribution to members of the Association.

6. The Authority may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, by notice in writing, require the operator of a radio station or television station to appear before the Authority and present such records in connection with such station as the Authority requires.

7. Members of the Board are entitled to payment of such travelling and other allowances as the Minister may approve.

8. (1) The Board shall, not later than three months after the end of each financial year, submit to the Minister a report of the operations of the Authority during the preceding year and the report shall include-

(a) information regarding the performance of licensees during the year under review;

(b) a summary of the decisions of the Board in respect of any matter it has acted upon; and
9. (1) The Minister may, in consultation with the Authority, make regulations on any of the following matters—

(a) station and programme identification, in the course of broadcasting and televising of programmes;

(b) the identification of sponsors and speakers;

(c) the records to be kept by licensees and the time, place and manner of their production to the Authority;

(d) the control of the character and standards of programmes for broadcasting and televising by licensees;

(e) prescribing the geographic area of operation of a licence;

(f) the proportioning of time allocated for advertising during programmes broadcast by licensees and the control to be exercised in respect of the nature of such advertising;

(g) the allocation of time by licensees to the broadcasting and televising of matters of religious, political or industrial controversy and the ensuring of the preservation of due impartiality in programmes relating to such matters;

(h) the allocation of time by licensees to the broadcasting and televising of matters of an educational, cultural, sporting or scientific nature; and

(i) the prescribing of anything that is by this Act authorised or required to be prescribed.

(2) Any regulation made under this section shall be subject to negative resolution of the National Assembly.

10. (1) Any person who-

(a) establishes or operates a radio or television station or establishes or uses any apparatus or installation for the purposes of broadcasting or televising without having first obtained a licence under this Act;

(b) fails to comply with a notice given under section 6;

(c) contravenes any of the regulations;

(d) fails to comply with the conditions of a licence that has been issued to him; or

(e) contravenes section 5:01(5), commits an offence and shall be liable to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of twelve months or to both; and in the case of a conviction under paragraph (a) herein the installation or apparatus in respect of which the conviction is obtained shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) The Minister may, notwithstanding any penalty a court imposes on a person under subsection (1), revoke the licence issued to that person.

11. (1) Proceedings in respect of an offence under section 10 (1) may be instituted summarily.

(2) In any proceedings in respect of an offence under section 10 (1), a person in possession of premises, in or on which there is found any broadcasting or television apparatus or installation in respect of which a licence is required and none has been obtained under this Act or in respect of which no licence is in force, shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the person who established, or as the case may be, is using that apparatus or installation.

12. A licensee shall, before the commencement of the operation of a radio or television station and every year thereafter on the anniversary date of such commencement, obtain or maintain in force all the necessary licenses, permits, approvals, and other consents required under this Act or any other law.

13. All expenses incurred in the administration of this Act are to be defrayed out of moneys voted by the National Assembly for the purpose.
SCHEDULE

1. (1) The Board shall consist of eight persons appointed by the Minister, two of whom shall be the Chief Executive Officer in the Ministry for the time being responsible for broadcasting, and a representative of the Public Utilities Commission, and a third representing the television industry.

(2) The Minister shall appoint one of the members of the Board to be its Chairman.

2. Subject to this Schedule, each member of the Board shall hold office for a period of one year but is eligible for re-appointment.

3. A member may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairman who shall immediately forward it to the Minister and, as from the date of receipt of the instrument by the Minister, unless some other date is mentioned in the instrument, that member shall cease to be a member of the Board.

4. The Chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and, as from the date of the receipt of the instrument by the Minister, unless some other date is mentioned in the instrument, the Chairman shall cease to be Chairman and also to be a member of the Board.

5. A member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board without reasonable cause shall cease to be a member thereof.

6. Where a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Board, the Minister may appoint a person to fill that vacancy for the unexpired portion of the period of one year.

7. The Board shall meet at least once every quarter or at such shorter intervals as may be necessary for the transaction of business.
8. Meetings of the Board shall be at such places and times as the Board determines.

9. The Chairman may at any time call a special meeting and shall do so within seven days of his being requested to do so in writing by not less than three members of the Board.

10. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board but where at any meeting the Chairman is absent the members present and constituting a quorum may elect a person from among themselves to be Chairman for that meeting.

11. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

12. Decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of votes.

13. Every member of the Board shall have one vote but in case where the voting is equal the Chairman has, in addition to his original vote, a casting vote.

14. The appointment, removal, death or resignation of a member of the Board shall be notified in the Gazette.

15. Subject to the provisions of section 3 (2) of the Act, all documents made by, and decisions of, the Board shall be signed by the Chairman or by any member of the Board authorised to act in that behalf or by the Secretary.

16. Subject to this Schedule, the Board may regulate its own procedure.
