CHAPTER 260

MONEYLENDERS (BODY CORPORATE EXEMPTION) REGULATIONS
(Section 12)

[4th March, 1967.]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the

MONEYLENDERS (BODY CORPORATE EXEMPTION) REGULATIONS.

2. Any application by a body corporate for exemption from the provisions of the Act shall be made in Form A set out in the Schedule hereto and shall be signed by a director or other responsible officer by and on behalf of the body corporate seeking such exemption.

3. Such application shall be accompanied by-

(a) in the case of a body corporate registered under the Companies Act or under the provisions of any legislation relating to companies in the country where such company is registered a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and, in all other cases, a copy of the Charter, Deed of Settlement, or other document of Incorporation, and the Regulations governing the rights of members, such copies being certified by a director or other responsible officer of the body corporate as true copies;

(b) a statutory declaration by a director or other responsible officer of the body corporate setting out the nature of the business carried on by the body corporate; and

\( (c) \) a copy of the last balance sheet and profit and loss account.

4. The Minister may require, and the body corporate (if so required) shall supply such further information by statutory declarations, production of documents, or otherwise, as the Minister may think proper, concerning the constitution, objects and financial position of the body corporate, and also concerning the manner in which the said body corporate has carried on the business or with regard to any other matter which the Minister may deem necessary.

5. The Minister may, if he thinks fit, require notice of the application to be advertised in such papers as he may prescribe.

6. If, in the opinion of the Minister, the body corporate is a proper one for exemption, he may make an Order exempting such body corporate from the Act upon such conditions and for such period as he may think fit and such Order shall be in Form B set out in the Schedule hereto.

7. Every Order shall be signed in triplicate. One copy shall be retained by the Minister, one copy shall be sent to the body corporate and one copy shall be sent to the Registrar of Companies.

8. The body corporate shall within seven days of the making of the Order cause to be published a copy of the Order in the \textit{Gazette} and in such other papers as the Minister may direct.

9. Not more than three months before the expiration of the period of exemption specified in any Order, the body corporate may make an application for renewal of the Order of exemption and the Minister may from time to time require further information.
make further Orders exempting the body corporate from the Act upon such conditions and for such further period as he may think fit. Any such further Order shall be published in accordance with the provisions of regulation 8 of these Regulations.

10. The Minister may at any time, by Order, revoke any Order of exemption and shall cause notice of such revocation to be given to the body corporate and to the Registrar of Companies, and upon such revocation, the body corporate shall cease to be exempted from the Act. The Minister shall cause a copy of the revoking Order to be published in the Gazette.
