Qualifications for registration as an ayurvedic practitioner.

55. (1) No person shall be entitled to be registered in the general register as an ayurvedic practitioner unless he—

- (a) is a citizen of Sri Lanka; and
- (b) is the holder of a diploma granted by the Board of Indigenous Medicine, or a certificate issued on or before the appointed date, by the Ayurvedic Medical Council under the Ayurvedic Medical Council Ordinance; or

[§ 13, Law 7 of 1977.]

- (c) is the holder of a diploma granted by the Ayurvedic College and Hospital Board, or the holder of a diploma or certificate granted by the Ayurveda Education and Hospital Board established under this Act, or the holder of a degree or diploma granted by the Institute of Ayurveda of the University of Ceylon,* or the holder of a degree or diploma granted by the Institute of Indigenous Medicine of the University of Colombo, Sri Lanka; or

- (d) is the holder of a diploma granted by any other institution in Sri Lanka or India which has been declared to be an approved institution for the purposes of this section by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette; or

- (e) satisfies the Council that he possesses sufficient knowledge, experience and skill for the efficient practice of ayurveda.

(2) No person shall be entitled to be registered in the special register as an ayurvedic practitioner unless he—

- (a) is a citizen of Sri Lanka; and
- (b) satisfies the Council that he possesses a special knowledge and sufficient experience and skill in any particular branch of ayurveda:

Provided, however, that from such date as may be appointed by the Minister no person shall be entitled to be registered in the special register unless, in addition to satisfying the requirements of paragraph (a) and paragraph (b), he is registered in the general register as an ayurvedic practitioner.

56. No person shall be entitled to be registered as an ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse unless he—

- (a) is a citizen of Sri Lanka; and
- (b) satisfies the Council that he possesses sufficient knowledge, experience and skill for the efficient practice of ayurvedic pharmacy or ayurvedic nursing, as the case may be.

Qualifications for registration as an ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse.

57. (1) The Council may, by order, refuse the application of any person for registration as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist, ayurvedic nurse, or cancel, or suspend for a specified period, the registration of any person as such practitioner or pharmacist or nurse on any of the following grounds :—

- (a) that he has been convicted by a competent court of any offence which shows him to be unfit to be such practitioner or pharmacist or nurse; or
- (b) that he has been guilty of any misconduct in his capacity as such practitioner or pharmacist or nurse; or
- (c) that he has been deprived of any diploma or certificate which has constituted the qualification for such registration,

Grounds on which registration may be refused, cancelled or suspended.

(2) When any proceedings have been instituted before a court against any person who is a registered ayurvedic practitioner or registered ayurvedic pharmacist or registered ayurvedic nurse, in respect of any offence referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1), the Council may, by order, suspend the registration of that person as such practitioner, pharmacist or nurse, as the case may be, until a final judgment, order or other determination is made or entered by such court in those proceedings.

(3) Where a person is registered as an ayurvedic practitioner in both the general register and the special register, the Council shall, if his registration in the general register is cancelled, by order cancel his registration in the special register.

(4) No order of refusal, cancellation or suspension shall be made by the Council under subsection (1) or subsection (2) or subsection (3) in respect of any person until such person has been given an opportunity of being heard against the making of such order. At any such hearing—

(a) the Council may employ the services of a lawyer to lead the evidence and present the case against such person and of another lawyer to advise the Council and to act as judicial assessor; and

(b) such person may employ the services of a lawyer to lead evidence on his behalf and present his case.

(5) No order of refusal, cancellation or suspension made by the Council under subsection (1) or subsection (2) or subsection (3) in respect of any person shall take effect until the expiry of the period within which an appeal may be preferred against it to the Minister under section 63, and, in the event of an appeal being duly preferred against it to the Minister under that section, unless and until the order is confirmed in appeal.

Service of copies of orders made by the Council.

58. A copy of an order made by the Council allowing or refusing an application of any person for registration as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse, or cancelling or suspending the registration of any person as such practitioner, pharmacist or nurse, shall be sent by registered post to such person by the Registrar.

Effect of orders made by the Council and duty of Registrar to give effect to such orders.

59. (1) An order made by the Council allowing the application of any person for registration as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse, shall take effect on the date specified in the order, and shall entitle that person to be registered, with effect from that date, in the appropriate register of ayurvedic practitioners, the register of ayurvedic pharmacists or the register of ayurvedic nurses, as the case may be. It shall be the duty of the Registrar, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 60, to enter the name of, and such particulars as may be prescribed by rules made by the Council under this Act relating to, such person in such register.

(2) Where an order made by the Council cancelling the registration of any person as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse takes effect, it shall be the duty of the Registrar to remove the name and particulars of that person from the register of ayurvedic practitioners, the register of ayurvedic pharmacists, or the register of ayurvedic nurses, as the case may be.

(3) Where an order made by the Council suspending the registration of any person as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse takes effect, he shall not exercise or enjoy, during the period of such suspension, the rights and privileges conferred by this Act on a registered ayurvedic practitioner, registered ayurvedic pharmacist or registered ayurvedic nurse, as the case may be.

60. (1) The fee for registration as an ayurvedic practitioner, ayurvedic pharmacist or ayurvedic nurse shall be such sum as may be prescribed by rules made by the Council under this Act.
