- (d) makes any record or note relating to any prohibited place or to anything in any such place ; or
- (e) obtains, collects, records, publishes, or uses, or communicates to any other person any official secret or secret document, or any information which is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (1) of section 26.

(2) On a prosecution under this section—

(a) it shall not be necessary to show that the accused person was guilty of any particular act tending to show a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, and, notwithstanding that no such act is proved against him, he may be convicted if, from the circumstances of the case, or his conduct, or his known character as proved, it appears that his purpose was a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State; and if any official secret or secret document, or any such information as is referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) is obtained, collected, recorded, published, used, or communicated by any person other than a person acting under lawful authority, it shall be deemed to have been obtained, collected, recorded, published, used, or communicated for a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State unless the contrary is proved; and

(b) the fact that the accused person has been in communication with, or attempted to communicate with, a foreign agent, whether within or without Sri Lanka, shall be evidence that he has, for a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, obtained or attempted to obtain information which is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2), without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of that paragraph—

[a] a person shall, unless he proves the contrary, be deemed to have been in communication with a foreign agent if—

(i) he has, either within or without Sri Lanka, visited the address of a foreign agent or consorted or associated with a foreign agent, or

(ii) either, within or without Sri Lanka, the name or address of, or any other information regarding, a foreign agent has been found in his possession, or has been supplied by him to any other person, or has been obtained by him from any other person ;

(b) the expression "foreign agent" includes any person who is or has been or is reasonably suspected of being or having been employed by a foreign power either directly or indirectly for the purpose of committing an act, either within or without Sri Lanka, prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State or who has or is reasonably suspected of having, either within or without Sri Lanka, committed, or attempted to commit, such an act in the interests of a foreign power;and

(c) any address, whether within or without Sri Lanka, reasonably suspected of being an address used for the receipt of communications intended for a foreign agent, or any address at which a foreign agent resides, or to which he resorts for the purpose of giving or receiving communications, or at which he carries on any business, shall be deemed to be the address of a foreign agent, and communications addressed to such an address shall be deemed to be communications with a foreign agent.

7. (1) If any person entrusted with any official secret or secret document, communicates or delivers it to any other person who is not a person to whom he is authorized to communicate or deliver it or to whom it is in the interests of the State his duty to communicate or deliver it, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

Communication of official
secret, &c., to
persons.

(2) If any person who is not entrusted with, but who is otherwise having possession or control of, any official secret or secret document, communicates or delivers it to any other person who is not authorized to receive it or who is not a person to whom it is in the interests of the State his duty to communicate or deliver it, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

Receiving unauthorized communication of official secret,&c

8. (1) If any person receives any official secret or secret document or permits it to be communicated or delivered to him, having reasonable cause to believe that it is communicated or delivered to him in contravention of this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

(2) It shall be a sufficient defence for any person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that the communication or delivery of the official secret or secret document was not due to any solicitation or demand on his part.

Conduct endangering safety of official secret &c

9. If any person who is entrusted with, or is otherwise having possession or control of, any official secret or secret document—

- (a) fails to take reasonable care of such secret or document; or
- (b) conducts himself in such manner as to endanger the safety or secrecy of the information or document; or
- (c) in the case of such document, retains it in his possession or control when he has no right, or when it is contrary to his duty, to retain it, or fails to comply with any direction issued by lawful authority with regard to the return or disposal thereof,

he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

Unauthorized use of uniforms, false declarations, forgery personation and forged documents

10. (1) If any person, for the purpose of gaining admission, or of assisting any other person to gain admission, to a prohibited place, or for any other purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State—

- (a) uses or wears, without lawful authority, any naval, military, air force, police or other official uniform, or any uniform so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, or falsely represents himself to be a person who is or has been entitled to use or wear any such uniform; or

- (c) forges, alters, or tampers with any passport or any naval, military, air force, police, or official pass, permit, certificate, licence or other document of a similar character (hereafter in this section referred to as an " official document "), or uses or has in his possession any such forged, altered, or irregular official document; or
- (d) personates, or falsely represents himself to be a person holding, or in the employment of a person holding office under the Republic, or to be or not to be a person to whom an official document or a secret official code word or pass word has been duly issued or communicated, or with intent to obtain an official document, secret official code word or pass word, whether for himself or any other person, knowingly makes any false statement; or
- (e) uses or has in his possession or under his control, without lawful authority, any die, seal, or stamp used in the service of the Republic or any die, seal or stamp so nearly resembling any die, seal or stamp used in the service of the Republic as to be calculated to deceive, or counterfeits any die, seal or stamp used in the service of the Republic or uses, or has in his possession, or under his control, any such conteredited die, seal or stamp,

he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

- (2) If any person—
  - (a) retains, for any purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, any official document, whether or not completed or issued for use, when he has no right to retain it, or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it, or fails to comply with any directions issued by lawful authority with regard to the return or disposal thereof; or
  - (A) allows any other person to have possession of any official document issued for his use alone, or communicates any secret official code word or pass word so issued, or without lawful authority or excuse, has in his possession any official document or secret official code word or pass word issued for the use of some person other than himself, or on obtaining possession of any official document by finding it or otherwise, neglects or fails to restore it to the person or authority by whom or for whose use it was issued, or to the officer in charge of a police station,

he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

(3) In the case of any prosecution under this section involving the proof of a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, subsection (2) (a) of section 6 shall apply in like manner as it applies to prosecutions under that section.

Power to require the production of telegrams.

11. (1) Whenever it appears to the President to be expedient in the public interest, he may, by order under his hand, require any person who owns or controls any telegraph or wireless telegraph used for the sending or receipt of messages to or from any place outside Sri Lanka, to produce to him, or to any person named in the order, the originals and transcripts, either of all messages, or of messages of any class or description specified in the order, or of messages sent from or addressed to any person or place specified in the order, being messages sent to or received from any place outside Sri Lanka by means of any such telegraph or wireless telegraph, and all other papers relating to any such message.

(2) If any person who is required to produce any original or transcript or paper referred to in subsection (1) refuses or neglects to do so or mutilates or destroys such original or transcript or paper, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (3) of section 26.

(3) In this section, the expressions "message", "telegraph" and "wireless telegraph" shall have the same meanings as in the Telecommunications Ordinance.

12. (1) Where the Inspector-General of Police is satisfied that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been committed and for believing that any person is able to furnish information as to the suspected offence, he may apply to the Minister for permission to exercise the powers conferred by this subsection and, if such permission is granted, he may authorize any police officer not below the rank of Inspector to require the person believed to be able to furnish information to give any information in his power relating to the suspected offence, and, if so required and on tender of his reasonable expenses, to attend at such reasonable time and place as may be specified by the Inspector-General of Police or by the police officer authorized as aforesaid.

(2) Where the Inspector-General of Police has reasonable ground for believing that a case is one of great emergency and that in the public interest immediate action is necessary, he may exercise the powers conferred by subsection (1) without applying for or being granted the permission of the Minister, but, if he does so, shall forthwith report the circumstances to the Minister.

(3) References in this section to the Inspector-General of Police shall be construed as including references to any other officer of police expressly authorized by the Inspector-General of Police to act on his behalf for the purposes of this section when by reason of illness, absence, or other cause the Inspector-General is himself unable to act.

(4) If any person who is required under the preceding provisions of this section to give any information or to attend as aforesaid fails to comply with the requirement or knowingly gives false information, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (3) of section 26.

13. (1) If any person—

- (a) knowingly harbours any other person whom he knows, or has reasonable grounds for believing, to be a person who is about to commit or who has committed an offence under this Act; or
- (b) knowingly permits any such persons to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control; or
- (c) having harboured any such person, or having permitted any such persons to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control, wilfully omits or refuses to disclose to a police officer any information which it is in his power to give in relation to any such person,

he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

(2) For the purposes of this section any person who, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that any other person is about to commit or has committed any offence under this Act, supplies such other person with shelter, food, drink, money, clothes, arms, ammunition, or means of transport, or otherwise maintains or assists such other person or conceals him with a view to preventing his apprehension or screening him from legal punishment, shall be deemed to harbour such other person.

14. If any person attempts to commit, or solicits or incites or endeavours to persuade or conspires with any other person to commit, or aids or abets or does any act preparatory to the commission of, an offence under this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against in the same manner, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to the same punishment, as that provided in this Act for the first-mentioned offence.

15. (1) The competent authority of a Permits. prohibited place—

- (a) may issue to any person a permit, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the permit, authorizing him to enter that place for such purpose as may be so specified, and
- (b) may authorize a person to whom a permit is issued, by express provision in the permit, to take any camera or sketching materials into the aforesaid place and take or make any photograph or sketch of any such part of that place or any such thing therein as may be specified in the permit.

(2) Where the competent authority of a prohibited place issues a permit under subsection (1) expressly authorizing the taking or making of any photograph or sketch, he shall specify in the permit a condition that every photograph or sketch taken or made under the authorization given by the permit shall be submitted to him for examination and approval and that any such photograph or sketch, if disapproved wholly or in part by him, shall be liable to be confiscated or destroyed or to be modified by the obliteration of any part or otherwise, as he may in each case deem necessary.

(3) If a person to whom a permit is issued under subsection (1) contravenes or fails to comply with any condition specified in the permit, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (2) of section 26.

16. Where any person is found to be committing or is known or reasonably suspected to have committed an offence under any of the foregoing provisions of this Act in or in the vicinity of a prohibited place or in- relation to any such place, the competent authority of that place or any officer acting under his direction may—

- (a) detain such person for purposes of search; and
- (b) cause such person and any camera or sketching materials in his possession to be searched ; and
- (c) seize any photograph or sketch found on such person or in his camera or among his sketching materials or otherwise in his possession.

Where it is necessary to search the person of a female under this section, the search shall in every case be carried out by a female and with strict regard to decency.

Search warrant to look for and seize photographs, &c.

17. Where a Magistrate is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that there is in existence within his local jurisdiction a photograph, sketch or model which contains or affords matter or information relating to a prohibited place or anything therein, being matter or information likely to be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy or to any foreign power or otherwise likely to be prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, he may issue a search warrant to search for and seize such photograph, sketch or model, whether or not an offence under this Act is alleged or is reasonably suspected to have been committed,

Disposal of photographs, &c., seized or produced.

18. (1) Every photograph, sketch or model seized under section 16 or in the execution of a search warrant under section 17 shall be produced before a Magistrate, and shall be transmitted by the Magistrate, through the appropriate channels, to the Minister for directions as to the disposal thereof.

(2) The Minister, if he considers that any photograph, sketch or model transmitted to him under subsection (1) contains matter or information directly or indirectly useful to an enemy or to any foreign power or otherwise prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, may direct that the photograph, sketch or model be forfeited or that any part thereof be obliterated, erased, or removed.

(3) The directions given by the Minister under subsection (2) in respect of any photograph, sketch or model shall apply to every copy or print thereof then existing or thereafter made, and in the case of a photograph shall apply, also, to the film, plate or developed negative from which the photograph was reproduced.

(4) If any person contravenes any direction given by the Minister under subsection (2), or resists or obstructs, or prevents by any act, default or refusal, the execution of any such direction, he shall be guilty of an offence punishable under subsection (3) of section 26.

19. (1) Any person who is found committing an offence under this Act, or who is reasonably suspected of having committed, or having attempted to commit, or being about to commit, such an offence, may be arrested without a warrant. Power to arrest-

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) it is hereby declared that it shall be lawful for any commissioned officer, warrant officer, petty officer, non-commissioned officer or leading rating of any of the armed forces or for any police officer, with or without a warrant or other process, to arrest or cause to be arrested any person who, in a prohibited place or on any land or premises in the occupation of any of the armed forces, is found committing or is reasonably suspected to be committing an offence under this Act, and forthwith to bring or cause to be brought the person so arrested before a Magistrate for the purpose of being dealt with according to law.

20. (1) If a Magistrate is satisfied by information on oath or affirmation that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed, he may grant a search warrant authorizing any police officer named therein, or authorizing, if so requested, any police officer accompanied by an officer deputed by the Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy, or the Commander of the Air Force to enter at any time any premises or place specified in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every Search warrants-person found therein, and to seize and retain any photograph, sketch, model, note or document, or any such other article as is evidence of an offence under this Act, having been or being about to be committed, which he may find on the premises or place or on any such person and with regard to or in connexion with which he has reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed.

(2) When it appears to a police officer not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent in charge of a district that a case is one of great emergency and that in the interests of the State immediate action is necessary, he may, by a written order under his hand, give to any subordinate police officer the like authority as may be given by the warrant of a Magistrate under this section.

Manner of making arrests, searches, &c.

21. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act relating to arrests, searches, search warrants, the production of persons arrested before a Magistrate and the investigation of offences shall apply to all action taken in these respects under this Act.

Restriction on prosecution.

22. A prosecution for an offence under this Act shall not be instituted except by, or with the sanction of, the Attorney-General :

Provided that, notwithstanding that the sanction of the Attorney-General to the institution of a prosecution for an offence under this Act has not been obtained, a person who is known or is reasonably suspected to have committed that offence may be arrested, or a warrant for his arrest may be issued and executed, and on being brought before a Magistrate the charge upon which he has been arrested may be explained to him, and he may be remanded in custody or released on bail, so however that he shall not be called upon to plead and the case against him shall not be further prosecuted until the sanction of the Attorney-General has been obtained, Venue.

23. For the purpose of the trial of a person for an offence under this Act, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which it was actually committed or at any place in Sri Lanka in which the offender may be found.

24. In addition and without prejudice to any powers which a court may possess to order the exclusion of the public from any proceedings, if, in the course of any preliminary proceedings before a court against any person for an offence under this Act, or in the course of the trial of a person for an offence under this Act, or in the course of the hearing of an appeal in any such case, application is made by the prosecution, on the ground that the publication of any evidence to be given or of any statement to be made in the course of the proceedings, trial or hearing would be prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, that all or any portion of the public shall be excluded - during any part of the proceedings, trial or hearing, the court may make an order to that effect; but in every case where a sentence has to be passed, such sentence shall be passed in public:

Exclusion of public from hearing of cases.

Provided that, except in case of gross misconduct, no attorney-at-law appearing for the accused shall be excluded.

25. Where the person guilty of an offence under this Act is a company or corporation, or a member or servant of a partnership or firm, acting in the course of the business of the partnership or firm, every director and officer of the company or corporation or every member of the partnership or firm (as the case may be) shall be guilty of the like offence unless he proves that the act or omission constituting the offence took place without his knowledge or consent.

Offences by companies, firms, &c.

26. (1) Every person who is guilty of an offence under section 6 shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding fourteen years, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand rupees.

Penalties.

(2) Every person who is guilty of an offence under any of the sections 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13 and 15 shall be liable, on conviction before the High Court, to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand rupees.

A person charged with an offence under any section mentioned in this subsection may, with the sanction of the Attorney-General, be tried before a Magistrate's Court, and such person shall, on conviction by that court, be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

(3) A person who is guilty of an offence under section 11 or section 12 or section 18 (4) shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate's Court, to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months, and also to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Any person charged with any offence under any section mentioned in this subsection may, if the Attorney-General so directs, be tried before the High Court, and such person shall on conviction by that court be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years, and also to a fine not exceeding two thousand rupees.

(4) In the case of a Magistrate's Court, the provisions of this section shall prevail over any other law by which any limit is placed on the punishment that may ordinarily be imposed by such court.
